Top Priority For India Proposal Sought By West

Russia Battles Against Plan In U. N. To End War

BULLETIN
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (P)—The United Nations Political Committee voted today to give top priority to India's Korean peace plan despite violent Soviet opposition.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (P)—With last-minute backing from 21 Western allies, supporters of India's plan to end the Korean War battle bitter Soviet opposition today in a fight to give the proposal top priority in the U. N. Political Committee debate and voting.

The 21 nations sponsoring a U. S. drafted resolution last night agreed unanimously, after a week of haggling had seriously split the Americans and British, to urge priority for the Indian plan aimed at breaking the prisoner of war deadlock holding up a Korea truce.

They agreed, however, to seek clarification of one of its major clauses which the U. S. has demanded must be changed to give hard-rock assurances on the crucial prisoner of war issue.

Debate Iran Motion

The Political Committee was to resume debate this morning on a motion by Iran's Nasrollah Entezam urging that the Indian proposals be discussed ahead of all other Korean resolutions, including that of the 21 Western nations and rival ones submitted by Russia and her Communist ally Poland.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky already has rejected the Indian plan as "unsatisfactory and unacceptable," shattering hopes here that the Communist commanders at Panmunjom ever would agree to its terms.

Vishinsky Heatedly Debates

Vishinsky heatedly argued yesterday against giving the Indians priority, contending that the committee should deal with the resolutions in the order they were introduced. That would put the Indian plan fifth and last on the list.

Despite the Soviet rejection, supporters of the Indian plan decided to press ahead, leaving it up to the Communists either to accept it or face world censure for having turned down a move for Korean peace.

The 21-nation resolution calls for a truce on the basis of the U. N. Command's terms laid down at Panmunjom, including no forced repatriation. Vishinsky's motion provides for an immediate ceasefire followed by an international conference to settle all Korean issues, including the question of prisoners.

Presbyterians Call Pastor

Kent Man Accepts Local Church Pulpit

Rev. A. Laten Carter of Kent has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. Carter was extended the call after he preached a trial sermon here Tuesday evening. The new minister has been director of the United Christian Fellowship at Kent State University and served in the navy as a chaplain.

He fills a vacancy caused by the recall to the Navy of Rev. George S. Wilson. Rev. and Mrs. Carter and their three children, Richard, Robert and Rebecca, will move to the Presbyterian parsonage on E. Sixth St. about Jan. 1.

Rev. Ashley Wilson served as moderator of the congregational meeting last night. A petition, signed by members of the elders and trustees, will be submitted to Mahoning Presbytery by Byron Maxson and Floyd McKee and the Presbytery will extend the formal call to Rev. Carter.

Curtis H. Vaughan was pulpit committee chairman.

AP Correspondent Gets French Medal

HANOI, Indochina (P)—The French high command today awarded the Croix de Guerre with Bronze Star to Larry Allen, veteran Associated Press foreign correspondent, in recognition of his front-line coverage of the Indochinese war against the Communist-led Vietminh rebels.

Gen. Gonzales de Linarez, French commander of Northern Viet Nam, in presenting the decoration said it was for Allen's reporting of the war "without fear of danger" and in recognition of his "scrupulous concern for objectivity which contributed to giving a vivid and exact picture of the severe combat delivered by the French-Vietnamese army against the Vietminh Communists."

Clifford F. Hood Voted President Of U. S. Steel

Succeeds Fairless On Jan. 1; 5 Major Changes Reported

PITTSBURGH (P)—Clifford F. Hood, 58, who says he would be an Illinois farmer but for the persuasion of a young engineering friend, will become president of the world's largest steel-producing company Jan. 1.

United States Steel Corp.'s Board of Directors elected Hood to the top post yesterday at a meeting in New York. He is now executive vice president in charge of production of the subsidiary United States Steel Company.

Hood succeeds Benjamin F. Fairless, who will continue as chairman of the board and chief executive officer of U. S. Steel Corp. The parent U. S. Steel Corp. will become an operating company the first of the year when U. S. Steel Company is merged with it.

Born On Farm

The new president was born on a farm near Monmouth, Ill. A young engineer got him interested in industrial work, he says, or he would still be working on his father's farm.

Hood's election headed five major changes in top management of "big steel." Others are:

Robert C. Tyson, a vice president, was elected vice chairman of the finance committee and a member of the board of directors, effective immediately. He will continue as comptroller.

Cleveland Gets Post

Harvey B. Jordan of Cleveland, president of the American Steel and Wire Division, was elected executive vice president in charge of operations of the corporation, effective Jan. 1.

Walter F. Munford of Cleveland, vice president in charge of operations of American Steel and Wire, was appointed president of that division effective Jan. 1.

Howard E. Isham, assistant treasurer, was elected vice president and treasurer of the corporation, effective Dec. 1. He succeeds Max D. Howell who will retire from those posts Nov. 30.

Hood became associated with the Packard Electric Co. at Warren, O., after he was graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in electrical engineering. He joined United States Steel in 1917.

Wreckage Of Plane Sighted In Alaska

ANCHORAGE Alaska (P)—Unidentified airplane wreckage has been sighted in high mountain country on the route of a plane which disappeared Saturday with 52 persons aboard.

Air Force officials said last night that a search pilot had reported the wreckage in an inaccessible spot near Whittier, approximately 50 miles south of here. This is in almost a direct line of flight from McChord Air Force Base, Wash., where the big Globemaster started its trip to Elmendorf Air Base here.

Maj. C. W. Hinkle, public information officer at Elmendorf, said the wreckage might possibly be from two other missing planes. One is a C119 which disappeared 11 days ago with 20 men aboard and the other is a jet fighter which dropped from sight last month.

Search planes will head for the scene at daybreak today to attempt positive identification and study the feasibility of sending in ground parties, para-drop crews or helicopters.

Summerfield (left) as his postmaster general and two women, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby (top, right) and Mrs. Ivy Priest (bottom, right) for responsible posts in the new administration. Summerfield, receiving congratulations at GOP headquarters in Washington, will resign as party chairman. Mrs. Hobby, wartime commander of the Woman's Army corps., is federal security administrator and Mrs. Priest is the new treasurer of the United States after Jan. 20th.

Ike's Choices Draw Applause

Some Dems Promise Full Cooperation

WASHINGTON (P)—President-elect Eisenhower's newest appointments, like his earlier ones, have brought general applause from Republican leaders and even some Democrats and promises of cooperation from the Democratic incumbents.

The latest choices, announced yesterday, are GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield to be postmaster general in the Eisenhower cabinet and two women to noncabinet posts—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston as head of the Federal Security Agency and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest of Bountiful, Utah, as treasurer of the United States.

This makes a total of 11 appointments by Eisenhower to date, seven to cabinet positions.

Besides Summerfield, the other cabinet officers—subject to almost certain Senate confirmation—are John Foster Dulles as secretary of state, Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense, George M. Humphrey as secretary of the Treasury, Herbert Brownell as attorney general, Oregon's Gov. Douglas McKay as secretary of interior and Ezra Taft Benson as secretary of agriculture.

Also named are former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota as mutual security administrator and Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire as assistant to the President.

The two other cabinet members, the secretaries of commerce and labor, have yet to be designated. Republican Sens. Watkins of Utah, Welker of Idaho and Hickenlooper of Iowa, as well as Democratic Rep. Albert Thomas of Texas, were among the first to comment on yesterday's appointments.

Watkins said Summerfield will "put some business management" in the Post Office Department. He said the choice of Mrs. Hobby and Mrs. Priest were well deserved honors of which the nation's women can be proud.

Welker called Summerfield "wonderfully qualified" and hailed Mrs. Hobby's selection as "recognition of the people of the South." Hickenlooper praised all three appointments, and Thomas said Mrs. Hobby "will do the job just like it ought to be done."

Meanwhile, Mark L. Ford of Bedford, formerly of Salem, and William Richter, 31, of Fombell, Pa., entered guilty pleas and requested probation.

Deny Truman To End Controls

Officials Reported Seeking Extension

WASHINGTON (P)—White House denial that President Truman plans to scrap price-wage controls was underscored today by a report that administration officials are considering a proposal to strengthen and extend controls authority.

The White House late Tuesday discounted a report from Sen. Maybank (D-SC) that he had information Truman might end price and wage controls before Congress convenes Jan. 3.

A spokesman said the President, who can kill such controls by executive order, has no such plans. Shortly after the denial it was reported that Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam has recommended a 14-month extension of price, wage and rent control authority from the April 30, 1953, deadline to June 30, 1954. Putnam, however, was described as feeling the power might not be used that long.

Mobilization officials said Putnam handed his recommendations some days ago to Defense Mobilization Director Henry H. Fowler, whose wrap-up of recommendations for new legislation is now being readied for the White House.

Ford was indicted for making a fraudulent application to a duplicate car title. Richter was charged with robbing a Salem dry cleaning shop last May.

All three men were indicted by the September Grand Jury.

Albright received abrasions and a lacerated right eyelid. Meakin suffered a chest injury and cut lower lip.

Mrs. Eliza Albright, 65, received a chest injury, and Helen Hutson 54, riding with Meakin, suffered lacerations of the knee and wrist. All were treated at Salem City Hospital.

2 Women Given Key Government Posts By Ike

Mrs. Hobby To Head Security Agency; Mrs. Priest Treasurer

NEW YORK (P)—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower neared the end of his designations for top-level government offices today, declaring that more high positions will be assigned to women administrators.

He has named the seventh member of the normally nine-man cabinet.

And along with that designation, he announced yesterday that he will propose the names of two women—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest of Bountiful, Utah—for administrative offices in the government he is forming.

Mrs. Hobby was named to head the Federal Security Agency and Mrs. Priest as treasurer of the United States.

These, he said in a formal announcement, are "the first of other appointments of women in the coming administration."

The designation for the cabinet was Arthur E. Summerfield of Flint, Mich., for postmaster general. Summerfield is chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Only two cabinet posts now remain: the secretaries of commerce and labor. There has been no indication at the general's headquarters as to his choices.

He has an appointment today with Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland, one of his early backers in the fight for the presidency and the man who nominated him for the office at the GOP convention in July.

There has been speculation that McKeldin may get one of the two remaining cabinet positions. The governor, however, said yesterday his appointment with Eisenhower is only a friendly call and has no other significance.

Eisenhower also called in today an official who can tell him a good deal about Korea—Mrs. Anna Rosenberg.

Mrs. Rosenberg is assistant secretary of defense in charge of manpower. She has been in the war zone within the past two weeks.

Her name on Eisenhower's list of visitors gave rise to speculation that she might be one of the women he has in mind for the "other appointments." His aides, however, said they have no information about the reason for the conference.

Nor was there any indication today when Eisenhower himself would leave on his trip to Korea. Security measures are covering all details of his departure from New York.

Meanwhile, one of Eisenhower's cabinet designations brought a blast of criticism from Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune.

Speaking last night in new Haven, Conn., before the Yale Political Union, a student group, McCormick attacked the selection of John Foster Dulles as the next secretary of state. McCormick said of him:

"Dulles belongs to the millionaire socialist crowd who would put European interest before American interests, a policy to which Eisenhower seems to have been attracted by his command of armies."

The appointment will cause trouble.

Planes Set Fire To Red Center

U. N. Troops Hurl Back Drive On Hill

SEOUL (AP)—Allied fighter-bombers slammed high explosives and flaming jellied gasoline on a sprawling Red troop and supply concentration near Wonson on the Communist East Coast today.

Pilots said the whole area burst into flame. Dense clouds of smoke rose thousands of feet. Five large secondary explosions were touched off, indicating direct hits on ammunition stores.

U. S. Sabre jets and Communist MIG-15s clashed deep over North Korea. Allied pilots made no claims of damage or destruction.

Along the battlefield, U.N. infantrymen hurled back an assault by about 120 screaming Chinese Reds who stormed their Central Front positions on the southern slopes of Jackson Heights. The savage, close-quarters fighting raged for four hours.

The Air Force announced that Lt. Cecil G. Foster of San Antonio knocked down his fifth Communist warplane Saturday and became America's 24th ace of the Korea War. Foster's claim was confirmed after a study of gun camera film.

The Air Force also confirmed that Maj. Vernon J. Lyle, Alexandria, Va., shot down a MIG-15 Friday.

The Red assault on Jackson Heights exploded shortly after midnight. Communist artilleriers unleashed a terrific barrage before the infantry attack and kept lobbing high explosives into the Allied positions during the fight.

The Reds were driven off after a vicious hand grenade and small arms battle.

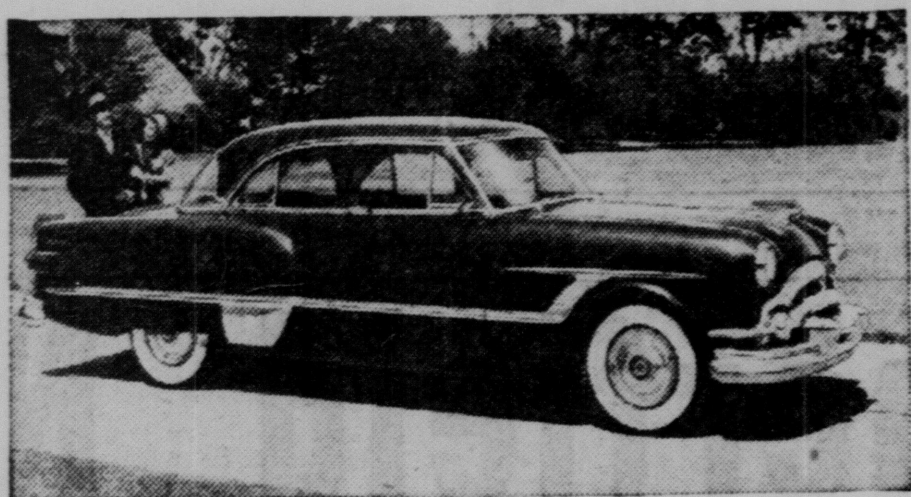

That was the only action of any size along the bleak 155-mile Korean battlefield.

Elsewhere, Eighth Army headquarters reported only small skirmishes and patrol clashes.

In the air war, B29 Superforts from Okinawa blasted Red artillery positions on the battlefield and Communist troop and supply areas deep in North Korea in predawn raids.

B26 bombers reported destruction of 155 trucks last night and early today. That brought the toll for the past 11 days to approximately 1,400 Red trucks.

Plastering is one of the most ancient of handicrafts.

NEW PACKARD ON DISPLAY.—The Packard Patrician four-door sedan for 1953, above, in the new line of Packard cars for the luxury car market, is on display today at Gray Motor Sales.

Two distinct lines of cars have been announced by Packard Motor Car Company: Packard cars for the top-price field and a line of Packard Clippers at medium prices. There are seven cars in the Packard line. Power steering, is introduced for the first time as optional equipment along with air conditioning. There are power brakes, ultramatic no-shift automatic transmission, and other recent contributions to easier motoring. Packard advanced contour styling is retained with refinements to further accentuate low appearance. Models in the Packard line have a 180 horsepower engine with 8 to 1 compression ratio.

Women Will Handle Most Of U.S. Money Beginning January

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration will be sort of like an average American family in one way—women will handle much of the money.

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby has been named head of a federal agency which includes the world's largest insurance agency, and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest will be signing the paper currency—the nation's folding money.

President-elect Eisenhower has named Mrs. Hobby of Houston, Tex., as administrator of the Federal Security Agency and Mrs. Priest of Bountiful, Utah, as treasurer of the United States. Both are 47.

Eisenhower, in announcing Mrs. Hobby's designation to succeed Oscar Ewing, said she would attend Cabinet meetings because of the importance of her post. Ewing on occasion was invited to such meetings by President Truman, but he did not attend regularly.

Mrs. Priest as treasurer will succeed Mrs. Georgia Neese Clark of Richland, Kan., the first woman to be Uncle Sam's purse-string custodian. She will be charged with the receipt, disbursement and accounting of public moneys. Her signature will appear on all greenbacks from $1 up.

Eisenhower's inclusion of Mrs. Hobby at Cabinet meetings gave rise to renewed speculation that the Republicans may be planning to push the Hoover Commission recommendation that a new Cabinet post be created to include the variety of activities now in the Federal Security Agency.

Republican women leaders are known to have their eye on this as a likely Cabinet post for a woman. Only one other woman, Frances Perkins, has served in the Cabinet. She was secretary of labor in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration.

Mrs. Hobby will become a trustee of one of the largest trust funds in the world—about 17 billion dollars held for those covered under the old age and survivors insurance program.

In addition Mrs. Hobby will have the over-all administration of the Office of Education, and a variety of other welfare agencies, such as the Public Health Service, Food and Drug Administration, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Mrs. Priest will have the responsibility of seeing that the Treasury issues its daily and monthly statements on the government's financial standing. She will sign government checks and see that the interest and principal is paid on public debts.

Profile Of Queen To Be On New Coins

LONDON (AP)—The lovely profile of Britain's young Queen Elizabeth II—drawn by a 71-year-old woman artist—will grace the front of new coins of the realm to be struck for the coronation year.

All the new coins of Great Britain, as well as of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Ceylon and Southern Rhodesia will bear the design by Mrs. Mary Gillick of Chelsea, the widow of Ernest Gillick, it was officially announced today.

At the strongly guarded royal mint facing the tower of London, great cascades of the coins are being prepared at astonishing speed for the moment of striking. The mint expects to turn out 500 million coins in 1953, with more than 90 per cent of them for users abroad.

Men work through the night ladling out molten metal or staggering under burdens of bullion. Similar preparations are being made at mints throughout the Commonwealth.

With the end of 1952, the last George I coins will be struck and the changeover to the monetary Elizabethan era will have arrived.

Dads Club Plans Gifts For Veterans At Crile

The Dads of Foreign Service Veterans (VFW) again this season is planning to send Christmas gifts to veterans at Crile Hospital. Boxes have been distributed throughout the city to receive donations.

Last year the Dads club sent $400 worth of food, games, magazines and tobacco to the boys at Crile Hospital, Club President P. J. Laughline reported.

Probers Blast Justice Dept.

Tell Of Delays In War Contract Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators came out today with what they called a "shocking example" of poor administrative work within the Justice Department. They suggested more "vigorous top direction" to prevent recurrences.

But for a change, the Justice Department was not held wholly to blame.

In the sixth of a continuing series of reports, a House judiciary subcommittee detailed the case of Norman E. Miller, Detroit industrial engineer, as an example of the delays and frustrations sometimes besetting officials.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Chelf (D-Ky.), has been sharply critical of the Justice Department and its officials in past reports.

In its current finding, a followup on public hearings earlier this year, the investigators put the primary blame on a taxpayer, Miller, and his techniques for avoiding prosecution in a war contract case. The government, they said, lost by default.

Miller was indicted in 1944 on charges of defrauding the government in connection with work for war contractors. After what the subcommittee termed eight years of "stalling and subterfuge," both criminal and civil actions against Miller were dropped.

Although picking out the case as an illustration of "all the problems that confront department attorneys," the investigators said the record was "in fact highly creditable to some who did their best to avoid its sorry outcome."

The report, unusual in its tenor, asserted at the outset:

"This record is not really an indictment of any individual, except Miller himself. . . . Yet the net result is to demonstrate that an unscrupulous defendant, possessed of influence, misrepresentation, attempted bribery, intimidations, and the like, can sometimes outmatch the entire resources of the government in bringing him to account in court for his wrongdoings."

Then in almost the same breath, the subcommittee says:

"This case stands out like the Washington Monument as the worst possible example of how not to handle a piece of criminal and civil litigation on behalf of a government of the people."

Miller was accused of falsifying employee records and allegedly pocketing "probably hundreds of thousands of dollars" from contractors having cost-plus contracts.

The subcommittee asserted that Miller hired a "whole crew of attorneys" and "ruthlessly exploited" the courts and the government's win delay after delay until his case eventually "expired of old age."

The criminal charge against Miller, involving $14,000, was dropped in October, 1950, and the civil action, involving $36,800, in January, 1951.

The litigation extended through the regimes of four attorneys general, and the final outcome "doubtless reflected sheer frustration" on the part of federal attorneys in Detroit to bring the case to trial, the report said.

Oilman Invested $1,000, Made $1 Million Profit In 7 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—An oil lease Ltd., of Calgary, Alta., which buyer has told the Security and Exchange Commission that within a seven-month period he made almost a million dollars on a thousand-dollar investment — and that he has prospects of making plenty more.

The story came out in a prospectus filed with the commission yesterday by Canadian Prospects, Ltd.

U. S. Develops "Breeding" Process For Atom Material

CHICAGO (AP)—The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission said today preliminary tests give "very favorable" promise the United States has successfully developed a "breeding" process to swell its supplies of atomic fuel or explosives many times over.

The commission head, Gordon Dean, made the statement in an interview published in the bulletin of the Atomic Scientists.

Scientists have been operating a breeder reactor for several months at the commission's testing station at Arco, Ida. The reactor converts non-fissionable uranium into "hot" plutonium. Plutonium can be used for atomic power or as the explosive material in one type of A-bomb.

In an interview with Dr. Eugene Rabinowitch, editor of the bulletin, and John A. Simpson, member of the bulletin's editorial board, Dean said:

"The experimental breeder reactor is now in operation, and we have yet to run across anything that would suggest to us that our attack on this won't be successful. I think it is fair to say that preliminary results seem to bear very favorably upon the future of breeding."

Dean said the breeding process, if successful, "will increase our reservoir of fissionable materials manifold."

In theory, a breeder reactor produces energy but in the process creates more atomic fuel than it burns up.

The reactor has a core of "hot" uranium 235 surrounded by a "blanket" of non-fissionable uranium 238. In uranium ore, non-fissionable uranium is 140 times as plentiful as hot uranium.

When the reactor core is activated, each atom of hot uranium that splits releases several neutrons. Some of these "bullets" split over atoms of hot uranium to keep the energy-producing chain reaction going. Others, however, are absorbed in the blanket of uranium 238 converting these atoms into plutonium 239.

Atomic scientists close to the project say that from a nuclear standpoint uranium 233 and thorium could be substituted as an energy source in the reactor.

U. S. Ammunition Exploded In France

CHALONS SUR MARNE, France (AP)—Three carloads of ammunition bound for American forces in Germany exploded in a railway switching yard near here today. No one was injured. U. S. Army officers said they could not comment on the possibility of sabotage until ordnance investigators make a report.

Chalons sur Marne, 100 miles east of Paris, is on a main East-West railway line.

U. S. Army Communication zones headquarters in Orleans said one carload of a 12-car ammunition train exploded, setting fire to two other carloads as the train was rolling towards Germany.

Rotary Has 102 At Dinner Fete

Ministers Guests At Kiwanis Dinner

COLUMBIANA—Columbiana Rotarians observed ladies night Monday with 102 present for the dinner served in the home economics room of the High School by the Tri-Hi-Y Club.

John Heintzelman, vice president of the club, presided for the entertainment in the auditorium after dinner in the absence of President Robert Maurer. The program included selections by the Junior High School Girls Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Jean Snow, and colored pictures of his trip to the Northwest and Alaska last summer shown by James Bookwalter.

Dancing and games followed the program. A. L. Wells was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Superintendent T. V. Utterback of Fairfield Centralized School, program chairman for next Monday evening, had obtained as the speaker Clifford Gehrm of the Republic Steel Corp. in Massillon, who will talk on "Communism and Americanism."

A NEW CUSTOM was inaugurated by the Kiwanis Club when it had as guests Monday evening ministers of Columbiana churches.

Present were Rev. H. J. Scheidtmann of the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. S. Longworth of the Methodist church, Rev. Donald J. Voelm of Grace Evangelical and Reformed church, Rev. A. A. Anderson of Jerusalem Lutheran church, Rev. J. Franklin Baxter of the Christian church, and Rev. Arno Holderread of Zion Hill Church of the Brethren.

Dr. George Myers, program chairman, presented Rev. Mr. Voelm as the speaker, who dwelt on the Thanksgiving theme. He urged people to brush the cobwebs off their hearts at Thanksgiving time and think of gratitude to God.

HALF A HUNDRED Amish men from Western Pennsylvania fell to work Tuesday morning tearing down the large barn on the north side of County Line Road between Routes 46 and 164 to make way for the Route 14 bypass.

The material is being moved to the vicinity of New Wilmington, Pa., where the barn will be rebuilt. The site is to be cleared by next Monday.

Little Rock's Try For Traffic Record Broken

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Little Rock's drive for 365 days without a traffic fatality was shattered last night when a pedestrian was struck by a car and killed.

Hoston S. Coney, 54-year-old employee of a basket factory here, was killed when hit by a car driven by William Reed, said Patrolman J. E. Walworth. It was the first fatality in the Arkansas capital in 356 days—since Dec. 4, 1951.

The city had planned a celebration, including a parade on Dec. 4 in the event the "deathless days" goal was reached. Mayor Pratt Remell said last night there had been no decision on whether the event will be called off.

The 356 days without a traffic fatality is a record for cities with populations between 100,000 and 120,000.

Girl May Not Live Until Christmas, Gets Party

MANSFIELD, O. (AP)—Little Linda Harmon does not know she may not live until Christmas.

Doctors have told her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harmon, that Linda, 5, is suffering from an incurable kidney cancer.

To make up for a possible missed Yuletide, Linda's great-stepuncle arranged with fellow workers at the Westinghouse plant here to have a Christmas party Monday. They fixed a tree with all the trimmings and piled presents beneath it.

Linda suffered an attack of pains, which she gets periodically, but managed bravely to finish the festivities with a house crowded with friends and well-wishers.

Citizens Commission Seeks Better Manpower Utilization

WASHINGTON (AP)—A citizens commission, set up to help the armed services find ways to get more fighting power out of their 3,600,000 men and women in uniform, went to work today with the blessing of President-elect Eisenhower.

The citizens group, holding its first organizational meeting with the full 11-man membership in attendance, is headed by David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of Radio Corporation of America.

Eisenhower has heartily endorsed the commission's objectives, set forth in an act of the last Congress which directed the Defense Department to reduce the number of its desk-bound servicemen so that military combat effectiveness could be improved.

Sarnoff actually started work in October, but Secretary of Defense Lovett delayed naming the commission members until mid-November to enable the new administration to have a hand in its development.

Sarnoff has stated that the commission may take one or two years to complete its top-to-bottom study. Lovett said the first meeting of the commission will have before it for review a number of efficiency recommendations already prepared by the technical staff.

Worse Than He Thought

One report comes out of Washington so persistently it is having an effect on public confidence.

It says Dwight Eisenhower left his conference with Harry Truman in a state of despair over the information he had received.

The "mess in Washington" was not only everything the president-elect had talked about in his campaign but something infinitely worse. It also was a lack of high-level planning. It was an onrushing disaster in foreign relations. It was a fantastic snafu in military policy.

It was, in short, a government so enmeshed in problems for which it had no solutions that the retiring president was justified in believing the president-elect was tackling more than he had bargained for—and he said so.

The situation resembled that of a man who has taken apart a complicated mechanism to repair it and is forced to give up the job to someone else. All he can say to his successor in sober tones is, "Heaven help my successor. He is going to need it."

The affairs of the United States have doubled and redoubled in their complexity since the Hoover administration. But there has been no corresponding increase in the capacity of the federal government for dealing with complexities.

Foreign policy alone, in these days of economic aid, military aid and power politics, takes more thought and time than formerly was needed for the handling of all domestic affairs.

Mr. Truman doubts that Gen. Eisenhower knew what he was getting into. There is infinitely more to "the mess in Washington" than tax favoritism and corruption-dyed mink.

The echo from that famous slogan, "You never had it so good" is something to the effect that it's a good thing you didn't know what you had.

More Than a Military Inspection

One of the trickiest public information jobs of all time is shaping up in Dwight Eisenhower's trip to Korea.

Unless the results of the expedition are handled better than his promise to make it if elected, there could be widespread misunderstanding and disappointment.

The president-elect has more than a military inspection in mind, though that is the only part of the expedition currently being stressed. He will want to talk to Syngman Rhee, president of the Korean republic, to learn what caused the Truman administration to turn sour on the Rhee administration.

Gen. Eisenhower—who will be wearing no uniform on this trip—will want to learn about the probable effect of a National Chinese invasion of China proper. He will want to learn about the probable effect on Koreans of a truce which would leave their country divided in half; whether or not they could exist as a house divided against itself.

There are more things someone must learn about Korea than how many troops and how much equipment it would take to change the prospect of marching up hills and being carried down on stretchers ad infinitum. The generals on the scene could estimate that. But it is going to take a new president of the United States to learn what lies behind and beyond the military deadlock.

Robert Sherwood's Delight

The terms of a contract between Robert E. Sherwood and National Broadcasting Co. for nine television plays sound like an emancipation proclamation for playwrights.

Effective Jan. 1, Mr. Sherwood will write an average of one television play every four months until he has produced his quota of nine. For each play, he will receive payment said to run into five figures.

Except for the movie industry and a few smash hits on Broadway, nothing like this ever happened to a man of letters. Hollywood's fabulous finances, unfortunately, contained a joker—endless interference with the author by producers, directors and even the actors.

On the trail Mr. Sherwood is blazing in television, no obstacles will be permitted. He will work by himself. He will be an artist, not a hack. His artistry will pay its way, without any patron and without pot-boilers.

Nothing like it ever happened to a man of letters before. If the contract is fulfilled, there will be statues erected to Robert E. Sherwood in loving memory. He will have discovered, thanks to himself and electronics, how to make a living by writing plays.

A lot of folks look upon hunting season as just another wild goose chase.

Shop too late and you'll find your Christmas list is made up of just-out-of's!

Think how much worry could be done away with if wives knew what stenographers really thought of their husbands.

International Mess

By DAVID LAWRENCE

State of U. S. World Relations Is Appalling

President Truman said the other day that Gen. Eisenhower was "appalled" when he learned the inside story of the problems facing the nation—but it turns out that it wasn't their enormity or serious nature which "appalled" the president-elect. It was the "mess" in which he found the relations of the United States with the rest of the world.

This deterioration in public policy, if known to the public, would "appall" the American people and, in due time, as Congress delves into the subject, much of the truth will come out.

Briefly it means that the absence of firm policies, the lack of resoluteness at top levels, the incompetence of certain personnel charged with important duties have all left in their wake an international mess that will not be cleaned up overnight.

This doesn't mean that the situation is acutely critical or that what has been lost is irretrievable. It merely means that men and policies have failed. To remedy the situation it is important to select good men and make new policies.

The chief defect on the policy-making side has been the tendency to improvise on a day-to-day basis rather than on a long-range basis.

Gen. Eisenhower and the man he has designated for secretary of state believe in careful planning on a long-range basis.

Many of the difficulties in our relations with other countries are due to inconsistencies and short-term steps and sudden shifts which make it impossible for other nations to understand clearly what the United States is driving at.

The Eisenhower administration is determined that there be a revision of American world policies so that other governments will have a clear-cut understanding of American purposes.

Among the things that stand out today is the deterioration in the European situation, especially on the continent in connection with NATO matters.

When Gen. Eisenhower was in command he operated on a broad basis with the leaders of other governments.

Gen. Ridgway, his successor in the NATO setup, has moved along conventional lines just as a military commander might ordinarily do.

This has meant a neglect of some all-important relationships with other governments in Europe on the policy level.

It is being pointed out that the way Gen. Ridgway has operated has been in accordance with his instructions and that no criticism can be made of him for his acts of omission. But criticism can be leveled, nevertheless, at the officials here who failed to sense the way in which things were drifting abroad.

There are other things at which the president-elect was "appalled" when he talked with President Truman and his aides.

One of them was the discovery that much of the planning for Korea has been on the basis of a continued stalemate there instead of a possible attack by the Communists.

The question of supplies and equipment and munitions for a strong defensive attitude also was raised.

On an over-all basis, the president-elect did not find some of these things to his liking, and mostly because he thought they should have been done better.

So the answer lies in better men and better policies. So far as men are concerned, friends of the president-elect who are in a position to know his mind are saying forthrightly that he wants the best men in the foreign service to stay on and continue their careers. He wants to preserve real ability wherever he finds it. At the same time, he wants to give the men of ability a better chance to have their policy proposals considered.

He has an idea that some of the men who know best the complicated situations abroad have not been allowed to advance their proposals or give their advice freely at opportune moments.

There have been stories emanating from the administration about how grim the situation is and how unprepared Gen. Eisenhower is to meet it. That was the impression Mr. Truman and his advisers sought to convey.

The president-elect knows Europe better than most people in the Truman administration, and his associate, John Foster Dulles, knows the Far East better than anybody in the present government. Both men are absolutely confident they can deal with the situation.

The only regret is that there has been such a drifting, leaderless, rudderless and at times purposeless expression of the American attitude so that foreign governments have gotten the feeling the United States Government doesn't know what it wants or what it is doing.

Perhaps it will take months to clean up the mess and the confusion, but in due time the foreign governments will learn that the United States has a definite policy and a program, and that America isn't going to spend its billions in the hopeless task of buying goodwill, but means to proceed on the more hopeful premise that an alliance involves a responsible obligation which is mutual and not one-sided.

The details of what President Truman and Gen. Eisenhower said to each other probably will never become known but the psychological impression created upon the mind of the president-elect has become known to his friends.

The general was "appalled" it is true—but not as Mr. Truman used the word.

He was "appalled" that so little had been done on so many things that should have been done long ago.

GOP Won't Abolish Reforms

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Republican leaders have often reminded me of the man who took to his bed because a number of his friends told him he looked ill.

Beginning with Roosevelt in 1934, Democratic leaders have accused them of appropriating New Deal reforms but promising to administer them better.

Democrats assumed, in making this argument, that since the early New Deal reforms were enacted by a Democratic Congress and president, they thus earned the indisputable right to carry them on.

Republicans who suggested that they could "do them better" were charged with gross hypocrisy. Ultimately, Republicans were silenced. Even among themselves, those who favored retaining the reforms were charged with "me-tooism." In short, Democratic propaganda prevailed, and the Republicans lost an issue that might have brought their deliverance sooner.

It is time now to stand up in meeting and reassert the truth that those new activities of government adopted by the New Deal can be done better, should be done better, and that the new regime proposes as its major objective to do them better.

The way a thing is done is a matter of major importance. It determines whether the thing is worth doing. It is a matter not merely of form but of substance or, if you will, it is a case where form becomes a matter of substance.

Take old-age security as an example. The objective is to provide security for those who have been unable to provide it for themselves.

This security can, in part at least, be paid for in taxes over the years by the beneficiaries. But under the present method of administration the system is a deceptive form of security.

Its financial methods are open to grave question.

Its application is inequitable. Ultimately, under the present system, the so-called fund or reserve will be bankrupt and the government will have to make contributions from current income.

The task of honest fiscal authorities is to reorganize and rationalize this system.

That is one example of the right thing behind done the wrong way. The Wagner Act was another, until it was superseded by Taft-Hartley.

The greatest service that this new administration and newly elected Congress can perform will be to overhaul a whole series of laws and administrative practices. Life always outruns the law. Constant revision is essential.

No establishment of government and no administrative practices are sacrosanct.

Let this administration tackle the prosaic task of putting the house in order.

That will not be as spectacular as a big fire and a rebuilding. But it will be a better house and it will be less expensive.

All hail to those who would "do it better."

Still King of the Mountains

The Department of Justice

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

I note that "The Washington Post" wishes to revive the Presidential commission to investigate internal security and individual rights. Mr. Truman had appointed such a commission headed by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz which came to nothing. "The Washington Post" takes advantage of this discussion to side-swipe Sen. McCarran in the following words: "... (The Nimitz commission's) functioning was frustrated by Sen. McCarran, the powerful head of the Senate Judiciary Committee and the self-appointed grand arbiter of loyalty and security. He blocked legislation passed by the House exempting the commission members from the conflict-of-interest statutes."

THE McCARRAN committee, now to be headed by Sen. Ferguson, has worked out the pattern of subversion in our government.

While Sen. McCarthy made charges, the McCarran committee proved them. It is difficult to understand why an American newspaper would attack those who serve America.

Most Congressional investigations would have been unnecessary had the FBI been permitted to perform its proper functions. Between Harlan Stone and James McGranery, the attorneys general ignored the FBI, its capacity to gather evidence, and the precision of its service.

It is no longer a secret that the FBI was disregarded in all cases that involved subversives and spies.

It was not a matter of the attorneys general being Communist were not; nor were they less patriotic than other Americans. It was rather that in any administration of government, in this country or in any country, those in power develop vested interests in their own mistakes. One error leads to another.

THE NEW attorney general, Herbert Brownell Jr., will have a wonderful opportunity to clean up this whole sorry mess. No presidential commissions are needed to discover what is already known, namely, that Soviet Russia has invaded our country to corrupt our own sons and daughters that they might act as preparers for our enemies.

The idea of a president's commission, so far as I can discover, was first proposed in a speech by Joseph L. Rauh Jr., Chairman of the National Executive Committee of the Americans for Democratic Action, the Socialist party which was defeated with Adlai Stevenson in the last election.

In this address, delivered in 1950, the FBI was violently attacked.

It is a curious attack because it denies the function of a police organization to gather evidence against those who are actively engaged in a conspiracy to destroy the United States.

Actually, the object of the speech was to destroy the FBI.

TAKE THE INSTANCE of Frank Carter Bancroft, an American in the employ of the United Nations. He says that he is an Episcopalian minister but does not work at it. As an ordained priest, he understands the moral values of an oath.

In his testimony before the McCarran committee, he fenced brilliantly with the examiners. Finally Sen. Willis Smith asked him: "Let us put the question this way: Suppose this committee or a court... was to say that you should answer a question, as a citizen of the United States, and Mr. Lie or somebody in proper authority at the United Nations said you should not answer it because it was contrary to the United Nations policy. Which would you obey, the United States or the United Nations?"

Mr. Bancroft replied: "Sir, I would be on the spot and I would be very grieved that any situation would arise in which an American would have to choose loyalty between his country and a member state of which it is such an important member. I mean an international organization of which it is such an important member. I can't conceive of such a situation arising."

YOU WOULD imagine that all he would have to say is that he placed his mother country first. He declined in page after page of testimony to declare for America. His excuse was that he is an international servant. He answers the usual question in the usual way:

"Sen. Smith—Why do you not tell us whether or not you have been or are a Communist?"

"Mr. Bancroft—Because under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, sir, I think I have the privilege not to do so, because it might incriminate me."

With such Americans at large, it would appear that the FBI needs to be strengthened and that the Department of Justice should cooperate in treating subversion as an active crime.

Subconscious Department

By TRUMAN TWILL

When the rusty fender skirt reluctantly let go of the family taxmobile, it took a good-sized chunk of the middle finger of the owner's right hand with it.

While commenting on this in suitable words and accents, with a five-minute oration directed at a couple of startled cats who never had heard before of the knuckleheads who put those contraptions on their products so innocent owners can mutilate themselves, the subconscious department of the owner's pain-racked brain went to work on a general review of accidents to his fingers.

The first one was to the index finger on the right hand. It occurred at a pre-school age when someone slammed a car door, away back in the days when car doors had to be slammed hard to shut them at all. What looked at first like a bite of underdone hamburger eventually grew back into shape and looked like a finger again.

The same one was run part way through the small pulley of a power lawnmower two years ago and had another chance to grow back together.

A scar on the index finger of the other hand testifies to the cutting power of a saw-toothed bread knife when applied to human flesh. It took only one half-finished stroke to make the doctor wag his head and hope for the best, without promising anything definite. He underestimated the patient's recuperative power.

The nails on both thumbs have been regrown so many times no one could have kept track of all the accidents. While none of the 10 fingers ever was broken, they have been banged hard enough to enlarge all the knuckles—with baseballs, basketballs and foot-balls. Every finger on the left hand has been hit with a hammer, and every finger on both hands has been pierced under the nail with splinters.

Yet all 10 fingers are intact so far, and they all move, testimonial to the hardness of one of the most delicate mechanisms in nature's plan to make men higher than animals. Physically man's chief advantage is his possession of a hand which can grasp, manipulate and hold fast.

Fingers are hammered, burned, mashed, bruised, cut, mangled, infected and twisted out of shape. Yet with reasonable care they continue to be usable. So wonderfully contrived is the hand that all or part of more than half the fingers can be lost without serious impairment of dexterity, as long as the thumb and index finger remain.

All of which flashed through the subconscious department of a nerve-racked brain while lecturing cats on the criminal inclinations of bubble-heads who would inflict on innocent customers anything as diabolically designed and ruthlessly manufactured as a fender skirt.

Fortunately, the other skirt had fallen off of its own accord and never will lie in wait to snap off the end of a prying finger.

That left only one to go in the rubbish heap, and it almost cost a finger. As was pointed out to the cats, who have troubles of their own, it would have cost more than that had it been stuffed down the fat neck of the Detroit tycoon who let fender skirts be attached to his company's product. The subconscious department of the pain-racked brain thought of that, too, and what it would have meant to the new presidential cabinet.

War To War

Report from Chicago: Weather cold, government attorneys cold, defendants hot... The battle of the century is on... The duPont team won the toss and chose the north goal with Washington at its back... Government opened with a charge that the duPonts were guilty of great business success... Counsel asked, "Is this a crime?"... A second platoon of government lawyers tore onto the field with the reply, "You can be hanged for it in this country today..." It was discovered the judge was missing... (Turned out he had started early for court but couldn't get through the traffic jam of omnibuses, trucks, limousines and taxis bearing all the lawyers.)

Washington got the ball on the duPont ten-yard line and yelled, "You never had it so good..." The duPonts rallied with, "Don't let them take it away!"... It was clear from the opening skirmish that the duPonts were not using synthetic lawyers or plastic rebuttals... The winner gets the Rose bowl game, with a team made up of the survivors of the Panmunjom truce talks, the Rita Hayworth-Aly Khan litigation and last night's rush-hour subway battle... This is the trial of the year. The outcome will show whether there is such a thing as having too many shares of an automobile company and whether those winter snowtreads should be taken off tires and put on businessmen for year-around wear in the current economic climate.

There has never been a trial quite like it. All the living members of the duPont family are being sued... The theory is that if one member of a family has good business brains the others may be equally liable... Pierre S. duPont, aged 82, and Irene duPont, 75, are defendants with 115 other duPonts ranging down through the middle aged, the rather young, the juveniles and the infants.

The duPonts began as makers of powder. The government is out to powder the whole family. (General Motors and U. S. Rubber are also defendants, but no kiddies of these industries are named targets for tonight.)

One of the defendants is a babe in arms. If he is collusion with the rubber and tire industries you'd never suspect it from his gurgles... Nice kid. Never bawls except when you accuse him of being a combination in restraint of trade and threaten to take his mush and milk away if he opens another branch.

The proceeding makes all the duPont children nervous... they can never be sure when they are in the care of a baby sitter and when they are in the care of a sheriff, or a junior partner in a big law firm.

Almost an entire hotel has been taken over, with 46 rooms for duPont attorneys, clerks and files, 23 for living quarters and 17 held in reserve... Just in case Washington digs up a few more members of the family or any babies are born during the trial.

While Washington is making it tough for them, the duPonts are building a great hydrogen bomb plant to help save the country and taking only $1 a year for it. As they contemplate the present harassment, the duPonts must wish they had charged another fifty cents.

It is the first anti-trust suit featuring kiddies, nursemaids and diaper service.

If a man builds a better mousetrap the world makes a path to his door... Yeah, but not enough super-highways, boulevards and escalators for all the lawyers the guy will need to stay in business!!

Joint Dinner Party Is Held By American Legion, Auxiliary

"The Legion's program is the Auxiliary's program," Mrs. Ray S. Croskey, 10th District president, declared at the joint dinner party of members of Charles H. Carey Post and Auxiliary Tuesday evening in the post home.

Mrs. Croskey stated that the Legion program spells out the ideals of Americanism and that the program is carried forward through increased membership and the activities of those who belong to the Legion and Auxiliary. She defined the motto "Service Not Self" under its three phases, "Service in hospitals; service in education and service in the community."

The speaker pointed out that it is the duty of those affiliated with the Legion to acquaint the veterans with their rights and promote the program of rehabilitation and child welfare. In closing she said, "As Americans we should give thanks for food, clothing, freedom, spiritual blessings and for every perfect gift."

Musical entertainment was provided by Dixie Lee and Sarah Anne Wilde who played piano solos. Dixie Lee played "Norwegian Concerto" and Sarah Anne's selection was "The Theme from Piano Concerto."

Announcement was made of awards to be given by the department of Ohio in the rehabilitation program and two awards for membership. The local post and the auxiliary may participate in these endeavors.

Mrs. William Needham presiding at the meeting, introduced Mrs. Croskey. Also introduced A. L. Bricker, post commander, and John Herman, Legionnaire and Memorial Squad leader.

In his talk Mr. Herman commended the fellowship shown by the Legion and Auxiliary and made the following announcements concerning get-togethers for both groups:

Memorial Group members will be hosts to their wives at a dinner meeting Saturday, Dec. 27, in the post home, followed by a dance to which all members of Legion and Auxiliary and their friends are invited. A cabaret dance will take place New Year's eve, with an orchestra for dancing, the celebration concluding with breakfast in the post home.

Mrs. L. W. Sanders, who was piano accompanist during the meeting, reminded the group of the benefit supper and bazaar Saturday, Dec. 6, in the post home. Mrs. Clyde Dole explained that a parcel post sale will be held in connection with the bazaar.

Bed tables and the cigarette project for hospitalized or ill veterans was described by Mrs. Gus Sechler. Mr. and Mrs. Bricker were thanked for their gift of a refrigerator for use in the Legion Post kitchen.

In charge of the kitchen Tuesday were Mrs. Everett Dean and Mrs. A. B. Combs. The dining room committee, headed by Mrs. Howard McDonald and Mrs. John Stewart, arranged the tables attractively appointed with arrangements of fruit in antique glass.

American Legion County Council meeting is scheduled for Monday Dec. 8 and the regular Auxiliary session will be Dec. 9 when gifts will be exchanged at a Christmas party.

Quota Club's Fair Proves Successful

"All members of the Salem Quota Club worked very hard to achieve success for the fair" held Saturday in the Memorial Building, according to Miss Hazel Linn, general chairman.

Half of the proceeds will apply on the salary of Edward Harris, speech and hearing therapist in the Salem public schools. The other half will be added to the Centennial Park Swimming Pool fund.

Particular recognition is given to Mrs. George Thiess who donated a day and half's time in preparation of the food. Appreciation also is expressed to members of the Junior Red Cross who made signs and worked Saturday for the project.

Mrs. Frederick Koenreich was the fortune teller. Chairmen of the various booths included:

Mrs. Elizabeth Baker and Mrs. Thomas Crothers, candy; Mrs. Helen Brumbaugh, Mrs. Nell Bloom, Miss Elsie Thomas and Miss Pearl Walker, needlework; Mrs. Clyde Williams, Miss Grace Ellenberger and Miss Lillie Curtis, white elephants; Misses Ella and Zillah Stamp and Mrs. Laura Conrad, baked goods;

A. D. Mills of the Damascus lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows discussed the blood bank at the meeting of members of Home Rebekah Lodge Friday in the I.O.O.F. hall. A youth center, to be sponsored by the Odd Fellows, also was discussed.

Mrs. Edward Alexander, noble grand, presided at the meeting. She extended an invitation to the members to attend the next meeting Dec. 5 when she will be hostess to the lodge at the social hour.

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out by the committee which served refreshments. Favors marked each place.

Hostesses were Mrs. A. H. Schropp, Mrs. Ada Neiderhiser, Mrs. C. P. Snyder, Mrs. Estelle Reese, Mrs. May Whitacre and Mrs. Max Ranson.

DID YOU EVER SPOIL A FAVORITE DRESS or suit by catching the zipper in the fabric as you were dressing?

Of course, you did. Every woman has had this annoying experience at least once. Often she had to break the zipper to work it free of the fabric. Sometimes the fabric tore, too, and this meant the double expense of having a new zipper put in and, at the same time, having the fabric mended. You'll be happy to know, then, that a firm has come up with the greatest invention since sliced bread. (From a woman's point of view, of course.) It's a zipper that cannot snag or tear fabric, that will not release it easily the moment it catches.

To release this zipper, you pull the tab and thus free the fabric with no damage to anything. The slider pops open in the center or at the bottom of the track, then remeshes easily.

This new zipper appears (right) in a turquoise hostess gown of rayon acetate. Skirt has easy fullness achieved by unpressed pleats. The collar is softly rolled.

The zipper appears again in another hostess gown (left) with full skirt in silk, rayon and wool. Top is black velvet; the bodice is snug.

Ohio Garden Club Plans Christmas Meeting

The annual Christmas meeting of the Garden Club of Ohio will take place Friday, Dec. 5 in the Higbee auditorium in Cleveland. Members of the Salem Garden Club and the Garden Study Club plan to attend.

The meeting will open at 1:30 p.m. in charge of Mrs. Emerson Gillespie of Canton. "Christmas Traditions and Decorations" will be the theme of the demonstrated lecture by Mrs. Margaret McClure of Highland Park, Ill. Mrs. McClure, a nationally accredited judge and former member of the board of the Garden Club of Illinois, is well-known as a lecturer.

She will demonstrate the making of decorations for the home from materials which are readily available and not too expensive. Christmas arrangements made by members from all over the state will be exhibited. Awards will be presented at this meeting.

Junior Mothers Club Elects Mrs. DeJane

At the organizational meeting of the Salem Junior Mothers Club Friday, the hostess, Mrs. Donald DeJane of E. Second St., was elected president. The other officers include:

Mrs. Robert Hodge, vice president; Mrs. Chester Bing, recording secretary; Mrs. Clyde Davis, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Richard Ingledue, treasurer.

On hand to assist in the organization was Mrs. Jack Weiss of Kent, representing the Association of Junior Mothers Clubs. Members will meet the third Wednesday of each month, starting Jan. 21.

Church Songfest Draws Large Crowd

Phillips Christian Church was filled almost to capacity Sunday evening for the second successful songfest participated in by members of 10 congregations. Participating were the host church, St. Jacob's Evangelical and Reformed, Highland Christian, Franklin Square Methodist, Leetonia Lutheran and Methodist, Kensington Christian, Winona Methodist, Salem Friends and the New Springfield Evangelical and United Brethren churches.

The prelude was played by Albert Stewart and Rev. D. G. Stewart led in the worship service. The program was arranged by Harold Asty, superintendent of the Sunday school of Phillips Christian, and Mrs. William Morgan of the Kensington church. Mrs. Charles Vincent and members of Phillips Church choir aided with the singing.

Included on the program were favorite selections of the congregation. Mrs. Richard Tullis of St. Jacob's was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Schnader as she sang, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells."

Mrs. William Hall of Franklin Square church sang and Mrs. Randall Calvin accompanied her. Radio artists, Jim and Del, sang and Mrs. Ralph Huston read a Thanksgiving poem.

Rev. R. E. Mullikin of the Kensington church pronounced the benediction. Another songfest will be planned for the future. Next to the host church, St. Jacob's had the largest attendance.

Benefit Auction Held By Members Of B.P.W.

Sorority Members Hear Edward Harris

"Language is the dress of thought, and every time you talk your mind is on parade" was the theme of the members of Gamma Gamma Chapter, of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority Monday evening at the home of Miss Mary Jane Bergman on Park Ave.

Edward Harris, speech therapist of the Salem Public Schools, spoke on "Good Qualities of Speech." He emphasized that "speech is you, and that you should live in your voice." A dead, flat and lifeless voice gives the impression that you are that type of person, the speaker said.

With the aid of a voice recorder, Mr. Harris gave constructive criticism of the voices of the sorority members. To help make people conscious of how they sound he named five basic rules that control speaking: resonance, flexibility, rate, pitch and loudness, Miss Bergman introduced Mr. Harris.

Before the program Miss Mary Esther Eells was initiated in a candlelighting ceremony conducted by Miss Treva Bush, vice president. Miss Bush presided in the absence of Miss Elaine Greenamyer, president.

Plans were made for a roller skating party Friday at Roller Land skating rink in Alliance. Miss Eells assisted Miss Bergman in serving refreshments. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 9.

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID—patented beauty aid—is the sworn enemy of premature wrinkles, crow's-feet.

VOL. I, NO. 1

SALEM, OHIO, NOVEMBER 26, 1952

VOL. I, NO. 1

THE ANSWER LADY

QUESTION: Is it all right to dye the eyebrows immediately after plucking?

ANSWER: No, indeed, Mrs. G. R. Open pores are a portal of entry for the dye to penetrate below the skin and poison the tissues. Wait at least a week after plucking.

QUESTION: My lips are chapped and cracked all the time. Can this be due to the kind of lipstick I use?

ANSWER: Yes. Try using an oily lipstick.

QUESTION: When should powder be applied for make-up?

ANSWER: In make-up after a thorough cleansing, apply powder first and last... the first application is protective... the last artistic!

Beauty Secret For Hands Discovered

One of the most remarkable beauty secrets ever discovered happened years ago on the plains of Australia during sheep-shearing season. The hands of the men were dry, calloused and bruised. But almost immediately an amazing phenomenon occurred. Bruises were healed... their hands were soft, supple and smooth. What happened?

Lanolin, the closest actual duplication to esters and cholesterol, nature's own skin oils, is found in the fats and oils of the sheep's wool. As the men sheared the sheep, lanolin was absorbed deep into the layers of the skin. Lanolin made their hands BEAUTIFUL!

Today, Lanolin Plus, containing the right amount of lanolin and combined with other ingredients for absolute effectiveness, is the only formula to hold an exclusive United States patent.

LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION is richly enhanced with this precious substance lanolin. It's a velvety lotion that gives immediate effects, both protective and remedial. It doesn't leave the skin sticky and greasy, but restores a soothing softness and suppleness to dry, crackly skin.

You'll like the delicate, refreshing scent, as well as the tiny miniature ivory pump that ejects the few drops necessary for an application. A generous four-ounce bottle costs only $1, plus federal tax at all cosmetic counters. Keep a bottle handy at all times—and you will keep your hands BEAUTIFUL!

Wrinkles Worrying You?

Don't let them! You can actually help remove, or greatly reduce premature wrinkles in a very simple manner.

First, what causes this kind of wrinkles? Nothing more than hard, dry skin. To prove it, crush a piece of silk... then shake it out. It has no wrinkles. Now, crush a piece of note paper. It's permanently wrinkled... because it's hard and dry.

Ordinary cleansing creams probably are the cause of dry skin. Although they cleanse, they remove the skin's surface lubricants—esters and cholesterol, and leave the pores clogged with mineral oils and waxes. These are closely related to gasoline, and not only fail to lubricate, but actually may further dry out the skin.

All you have to do is soften the skin and premature wrinkles begin to give way. All you have to use is LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID. Use it as a cleanser; then tissue it off.

Rub in a little more, especially on the premature wrinkle lines, and leave it on overnight. In the daytime, use it sparingly as a powder base. After the first night, your skin will be no longer dry. Use regularly and your wrinkles should be greatly reduced or no longer visible.

Impossible? Not at all! LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, patented by the U. S. government contains a fabulous amount of lanolin and esters and cholesterol, the closest duplication of nature's own skin lubricants. These elements actually penetrate, replacing those removed by the cleansing process. You'll say it's "liquid magic," and it really is! Want to be wrinkle-free? Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID every day. It is available at all cosmetic counters and the price, $1 plus tax, is as astonishing as the almost magic results it gives.

Dramatize and Highlight The Unsuspected Beauty of Your Hair

To give yourself the correct shampoo, make certain that the hair is gently massaged with the fingertips throughout the shampooing process. It's not only pleasant and relaxing, but it stimulates the sebaceous glands of the scalp and makes them more active. Rinsing must be done with great care, slowly and effectively. Most emphatically, thoroughly! The desirable method is the use of a professional spray.

Now! What kind of shampoo lotion? It mustn't contain harsh ingredients that tend to dry out the hair. It mustn't leave the hair with a sticky, dull film. It must leave it soft, shiny, manageable! For some time, we have known that lanolin contains the substitutes for nature's own oils to help nourish and lubricate the skin and scalp. The best shampoo to choose is one that contains a generous supply of rich lanolized suds. Such a product is LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO. Here is a shampoo that lathers in the hardest water. It's gentle on the hair, and its rich, lanolized suds whisk away completely all dirt and grime so that the hair is left soft and silken, with beautiful glistening highlights. Just as the shampoo cleanses, its oil pampers the hair.

It's economical, too, because it's fast-acting, with just one or two applications needed per washing. Only $1 at all cosmetic counters.

New Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream Endows Dry Skin With Vital Oils

Ever hear this comment... "I can't use soap and water on my complexion because it's so dry?" What lady often fails to realize is that the cream she is using for cleansing may actually be drying out her skin.

Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream For Dry Skin offers in cream form a cleansing agent delightful in texture due to its quick melting and deep penetrating oils.

Why does Lanolin benefit your skin? Because Lanolin, a product obtained from the wool of lambs, is most similar to the natural oils of our human skin.

As we grow older the normal lubrication and elimination of the skin tends to diminish. Due to the lack of natural moisture and lubrication the skin becomes dry, coarse, dull and old.

Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream For Dry Skin gives you the needed supplementary oils to combat these conditions in your skin.

LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN... $1 plus fed. tax. At all Cosmetic counters.

Lanolin Plus Liquid replenishes natural skin oils with softening, lubricating substances. It works effectively as cleansing cream or make-up base. Try it today; treat your face to a facial pick-up!

Is Your Hair In Perfect Condition?

You may spend hours in a beauty salon or at home concerning yourself with stylings, rinses, bleaches and "touch-ups." Oh, your hair may look pretty after all this care, but what's it really like deep down at the scalp? What is the condition of its health? Have harsh chemicals, sunlight and hair dryers sapped its inner strength and beauty? These things can happen, you know. And they happen at a great cost of time and money to you.

External hair care is important and wise for the final appearance of the well-groomed woman. There is no question about it. Yet, in accomplishing this external beauty, is the same amount of time and care given to its internal condition. You can tell this way: Look for split ends, hair strands that have a dull, dry look, a coiffure that remains unmanageable. If these things are apparent in your situation, your hair lacks the proper lubricants. Nature's own oil, esters and cholesterol, are in need of a helpmeet. Lanolin, so closely duplicating these natural oils, provides the solution.

The newest hair conditioner available today Lanolin Plus for the Hair, just as its name implies, is steeped with this rich supplement.

It can be used in several ways. It should be rubbed gently into the strands the night before a shampoo. In this way, it is an excellent aid for reviving dull, damaged hair. If dryness is not severe, brush a few drops through the hair after each shampoo, working a small amount into the ends of the hair. In making the hair soft and flexible once more, it helps prevent split, broken ends and brings back a healthy, lustrous sheen. It helps keep unruly locks attractively in place. A few drops brushed on daily keeps shimmering highlights in the hair always.

You'll find, too, that the men at your house will like this new, lanolin-rich lotion for the hair. It does not leave smudge on hat bands, pillows or upholstery, but imparts a smooth, well-cared-for look.

You can purchase Lanolin Plus for the Hair for only $1, plus federal tax, at any cosmetic counter. It's the sure way to keep your hair in perfect condition!

Works Quickly, Effectively, Inexpensively To Restore That Youthful Look!

Chemists discovered that the supply of body substances which give softness and pliability to the skin diminishes with age. Therefore, they based the formula for Lanolin Plus on these important facts, combining highly refined lanolin PLUS other beauty-benefiting ingredients. The highly concentrated liquid in Lanolin Plus supplies your skin with the extra lubrication it needs. Lanolin Plus Liquid does the work of three products. Use it effectively as a cleansing cream, night cream or make-up base, because it gets down deep to the source of your skin oils with softening, lubricating substances. Try it for a facial treat... a perfect pick-up for dry, tired, weather-worn skin! Here's a quick simple way to deep-cleanse your face, make it glow with new vitality and beauty. You'll be overjoyed with the noteworthy results, the clean, fresh look and feel!

1. Hold a hot washcloth to your face and neck for about a minute to open pores and allow tired muscles to relax.
2. Briskly massage warmed Lanolin Plus (warm bottle under hot water tap) into face and neck until skin begins to tingle.
3. After a few minutes, wipe away impurities brought to pore openings by soothing Lanolin Plus Liquid.

Lanolin Plus Liquid is simple as ABC to use! Gently massage a few drops into your skin before retiring. It works while you sleep, leaves no greasy film on your pillow! It's perfect as a powder base and your skin is in contact with beneficial ingredients all day long. Just apply a few drops and tissue away the excess; your make-up goes on smoothly, really lasts. For a cleansing, apply no more than what is necessary to dissolve your make-up.

Since this lanolin-rich liquid lubricates and softens the skin, it has other beneficial uses: If the heels, or insteps or toes are calloused or rough, a relaxing foot bath, followed by a Lanolin Plus Liquid massage does wonders for softening and soothing the dried out areas. It's excellent also for sun-tanning and after swimming, during out of season sunny climate vacations.

How long has it been since you have analyzed objectively what your complexion is really like? It's up to you whether your skin becomes prematurely wrinkled, or is soft and supple, with a flowing, youthful radiance.

There is no season of the year, when it isn't necessary to conduct your own personal "complexion campaign." Climatic conditions—harsh, wintry winds or hot, penetrating sunrays... do rob the skin of its natural oils, leaving it hard and dry. Ordinary facial cleansers rob the skin of its natural oils. You must compensate for lost natural lubricants if your skin is to become softened and smooth in appearance; if you are to avoid dry skin and ageing wrinkle lines.

Only Lanolin Plus Liquid replenishes these natural skin oils so vitally needed to nourish and protect and lubricate the skin. Remember... it's up to you! How you care for your skin today means the difference between a beautiful, youthful complexion, or a hard, dry, unattractive one tomorrow! You can purchase this splendid product at all leading drug and department store cosmetic counters. Its nominal cost is only $1, plus federal tax. Ask for LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID!

But back in the early 1600s it was the battleground for marauding gangs of Caribbean pirates who used it as a hideout. Later, in the 19th century, smugglers buried forbidden caches of perfume and gold in the island's caves. Mona became a modern "treasure island" during the lusty prohibition era of the 1920s when rum runners used the same caves to hide stocks of liquor. Whatever the island's earlier hidden wealth, there is little evidence that pirate treasure still lies buried there. United States Coast Guard now uses the island as an observation station.

Trojans-Irish Game Sellout

Request Clash Be Televised

Guglielmi To Spark Notre Dame Attack

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Southern California's Trojans may have to open their full bag of tricks against Notre Dame Saturday if they expect to keep their record unblemished for their Rose Bowl engagement New Year's Day.

And that probability makes the game a scouting paradise for the coaching staff of Wisconsin's Badgers, the Trojans' Rose Bowl opponent.

Saturday's game is a sellout and both schools have requested that it be televised. The NCAA Television Committee is studying the request and has promised an answer. The NCAA's television Game of the Week Saturday is the Army-Navy contest at Philadelphia.

The Pacific Coast Conference champions have won nine in a row and haven't been beaten since they last faced the Irish in Los Angeles in the 1951 finale, when Notre Dame won, 19-12.

And the Irish, ranked No. 7 in the current AP poll and one of the nation's upset kings, might do it again.

Ralph Guglielmi, who as a freshman quarterback last year sparked the Irish to victory over the men of Troy, is ready for another try. His passing arm will be aided by a running attack which has averaged 206 yards per game, paced by halfback Johnny Latner and fullback Neil Worden.

Southern California's fine record has been compiled largely on a great defensive unit which has been responsible, directly or indirectly, for 141 points. That's more than 106 points tallied by the offensive crew.

Coach Frank Leahy of the Irish has been ill but was expected to return to active coaching today. He personally scouted the Trojans, via television, from his sickbed Saturday as the coast champs sewed up the crown by beating UCLA, 14-12.

Discusses Lincoln; Boosts Team Morale

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ohio State football coach Woody Hayes used a little talk about Abraham Lincoln to help his team stage its 27-7 comeback victory over Illinois.

After his Buckeyes lost to the University of Pittsburgh on Nov. 8, Hayes said he drilled the team on the desire for a comeback against Illinois the next week.

The Ohioans were quartered at the Lincoln Hotel in Urbana when they went to Illinois for the game and this gave Hayes his cue.

"I told them how Lincoln took one beating after another, but always kept coming back," Hayes said last night in a talk before the Ohio State Alumni Club.

The message about the late president or something else apparently did the work for the Bucks went out and defeated Illinois 27-7 and then downed Michigan by the same score the next weekend.

Hayes said his first major problem next year will be rebuilding his defensive backfield to fill gaps caused by the loss of halfbacks Fred Bruney and Marts Beekley.

Billy Vessels Wins Heisman Trophy

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Vessels, senior halfback of the powerful Oklahoma Sooners, is the first player of the Big Seven Conference team to win the coveted Heisman Memorial Trophy.

Vessels won the trophy, awarded annually since 1935 by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the "outstanding college football player in the country," in a landslide.

The star Sooner back, who gained honorable mention on the Associated Press' 1950 All-America team, gained 525 points from coast to coast. Jack Scarbarth, quarterback of Maryland, finished second with 367 points and Paul Giel of Minnesota, third with 329.

Duke and Navy have been football opponents 12 times. The two teams first met in 1927 when Blue Devil coach Bill Murray was a freshman at Duke.

ALL-WESTERN CONFERENCE DEFENSIVE FOOTBALL TEAM — In cooperation with the Associated Press, coaches of the Western Conference have selected this All-Western Conference defensive football team. Ends: Bill Fenton, Iowa; Frank Wodzia, Illinois. Tackles: Fred Prezioso, Purdue; Arthur Walker, Michigan. Guards: Bob Kennedy, Wisconsin; Percy Zachary, Minnesota. Line Backers: Tony Curcillo, Ohio State; Roger Zatkoff, Michigan. Backs: Fred Bruney, Ohio State; Bob McNamara, Minnesota. Safety: Al Brosky, Illinois.

Charles-Bivins Fight Tonight In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Ezzard Charles, who says he has forsaken his "Little Lord Fauntleroy" conduct in the ring and now is like a dead-end kid, will try to smash veteran Jimmy Bivins into oblivion tonight at Chicago Stadium.

Their scheduled 10-round fight will be televised nationally (10 p. m. EST) but about only 4,000 customers will be at ringside to see if Charles, the ex-heavyweight champion, keeps his promise.

Charles at one point of his boxing career was recognized as quite a chiller, having scored 48 knockouts. But then he decided a good defense is better than a good offense, and promptly lost his title to Jersey Joe Walcott. Now he appears to be returning to the killer type of fighter who seems to delight the fans. He says:

"I don't intend to take any more chances on winning by points. 'I'm going to slug it out with every opponent from now on. I will try to knock out Bivins tonight.'"

Hearing of such forthright audacity from the Charles' camp, 32-year-old Bivins, the Cleveland "Spider Man," countered with:

"Walcott proved that it takes only one good punch on Ezzard's button to put him away. I can hit as hard as Walcott and will prove it. Ez can't take my right hand shots."

Rote, Van Brocklin Duel For Honors

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tobin Rote of the Green Bay Packers and Norman Van Brocklin, of the Los Angeles Rams, are waging a nip and tuck battle for the 1952 National Football League individual passing honors with Rote currently holding the edge 8.54 yards per pass to 8.23 for Van Brocklin.

With three quarters of the season gone, Rote has completed 59 times for 956 yards and nine touchdowns, while Van Brocklin has connected 75 times for 1,210 and 10 TDs.

Eddie Price, of the New York Giant, gained 93 yards last week to increase his ground gaining leadership over Deacon Dan Towler of the Rams. Price has carried 169 times for 735 yards and a 4.3 average. Towler has lugged the ball 111 times for 660 and a 5.9 average.

Other individual leaders in the NFL are Cleveland's Mac Speedie in pass receiving with 53 for 816 yards; teammate Lou Groza and Gordon Soltau of San Francisco tied in scoring with 72 points each; Horace Gillom of Cleveland in punting on a 46.8 average.

Notre Dame Irked At Television Edict

NEW YORK (AP) — For a time Penn was the only vocal dissenter of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's controlled television program but today the Quakers have an ally—and a strong one who is becoming more irked with each passing day.

That's the University of Notre Dame, one of the major colleges that stands to lose plenty if it abides by the "game of the week" edict of the NCAA. As a member of the organization, the Irish have stuck by the rules, but the rumbustious in South Bend are becoming louder and louder.

"I really don't know what we'll do if they keep this up," said the Rev. Edmund Joyce, executive vice-president of Notre Dame, today before heading back for his school after appearing on a television program here. "One thing I do know, though, is that we're entirely against the program."

"To start with, we don't go along with the premise of the NCAA to permit it to televise its game with Southern California this week, it asked that the contest be put on after the Army-Navy game, and on another network. Both games are sold out."

Claassen Picks Navy To Top Army, Notre Dame Over USC

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — Making the final college football picks of the season while surrounded by turkey feathers. The feathers effectively hide last week's record of 30 correct and 8 incorrect choices for an average of .790.

Navy over Army: The Cadets were vastly improved over last year. In fact they are much better than the Army team which started the present season. However, Navy's defensive unit is the best to represent the Sailors in recent years and you can't lose if you can keep the other team from scoring. This game is your TV tid-bit Saturday afternoon.

Notre Dame over Southern California: Figuring the Trojans were at their best last Saturday when they got by UCLA and gained the Rose Bowl assignment. Also, the Irish apparently have cured their fumbling habits.

Pennsylvania over Cornell: (Thursday): The Quakers need this decision to keep Coach George Munger from having the first losing season in his long stay at Pennsylvania. A Thanksgiving Day offering.

Tennessee over Vanderbilt: (Saturday): It is Vanderbilt's turn to win this traditional contest but the Yols' tie with Kentucky last Saturday has awakened the team.

Texas over Texas Tech: (Thursday): Longhorns shouldn't have much difficulty here in a warmup for their Cotton Bowl test Jan. 1 against Tennessee.

Georgia Tech over Georgia: (Saturday): All of Tech's cripples have regained their health for this meeting.

Holy Cross over Boston College: (Saturday): Another one where you can throw the season's records out of the window. Chuck Maloy's passing to be decisive.

Finishing the others: Thursday Colgate over Brown, Miami over Cincinnati, New Mexico over Wichita, San Jose State over Santa Clara, Utah over Utah State, Virginia Military over Virginia Tech, Wyoming over Denver.

Friday night: Miami over North Carolina, Mississippi Southern over Stetson. Saturday: East: Fordham over New York University.

South: Alabama over Auburn, Mississippi over Mississippi State, Wake Forest over South Carolina, Tulane over LSU, Virginia over William & Mary.

Midwest: Houston over Detroit; Oklahoma over Oklahoma A & M. Southwest: Tulsa over Texas Tech, Southern Methodist over TCU.

Far west: Brigham Young over Tempe State, Colorado over Colorado A & M, College of Pacific over Marquette, Washington over Washington State.

Lopez Doubts Club Will Make Trades

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Manager Al Lopez doesn't expect his Cleveland Indians to make any important trades at the annual winter baseball meetings in Phoenix, Ariz. next week.

"We'll try to better ourselves in every way we can," he told a reporter, "but actually I doubt that any club in our league will make an important trade."

The clubs just won't part with any of their established stars, he added, and there actually is a shortage of talent available.

He promised, however, that he and General Manager Hank Greenberg will do their best to find replacements at the sessions. The Tribe is weak in the infield and needs additional relief pitchers.

Cincinnati Set For Powerful Miami

CINCINNATI (AP) — Miami invades Nipper Stadium Thanksgiving Day to risk its unbeaten football record against Cincinnati's powerful Bearcats, and Redskin Coach Ara Parseghian has this to say about the approaching battle of the Ohio giants:

"... Any talk about Miami being the favorite is just somebody's idea to bring us down there fat and happy for a kill."

The Miami maestro, who has led his boys to eight straight victories this season, pointed to the comparative records of Miami and UC against Dayton and Ohio University, which favor UC.

(He neglected to mention comparative scores against Xavier, which favor Miami.)

Parseghian has no priority on the crying towel, however. Sid Gillman, whose squad has lost only to Kentucky and has tied Tulsa in nine games, had lavish praise for Parseghian and the Miami team the other day while pointing ruefully to injuries he said would hamper UC.

Social Register

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—I don't know how your family feels about it, but our family is boycotting the Social Register.

As far as we are concerned, the blue book can go and turn blue. (As a matter of fact, it has already turned black—with rosy stripes.)

The 1953 edition has dropped Winthrop Rockefeller and his wife, Bobo, and to them we say: "Chins up, kids. Don't let it get you down. Life can still be gay."

Our own family isn't being dropped by the 1953 Social Register. We got darned good and sore at it when we found that there wasn't a single Boyle listed in the 1952 edition. To our further horror and anger we discovered there wasn't a Boyle listed in the 1952 Social Register of all cities—which, to the dictators who catalog the social dinosaurs, means only New York, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, San Francisco, Baltimore and Buffalo.

If you live anywhere between St. Louis and Death Valley, Calif., the presumption is that you dwell in a cave and eat peas with a knife.

I'll admit we Boyles were pretty shaken at first when the 1952 index of the socially acceptable snubbed us altogether. We held a convention and the hoary old patriarch of our tribe, dressed for the occasion in his best Sunday suit said despairingly:

"Hasn't a single one of us Boyles been caught loafing on the sands at Palm Beach, or lifting a pinky at a Newport tea?"

Well, the awful truth was, none had. We all were gainfully employed.

Then we got to thumbing through the 1952 Social Register and found it contained two pages of Robinsons, three pages of Johnstons, four pages of Williamses, five pages of Browns, and eight pages of Smiths (including five Smyths but no Smythes).

"Why it's simple," said our fine old tribal leaders. "Us Boyles have been outvoted by the hoi polloi. What Boyle wants to be smothered in all those Smiths? Let's stay out of that book altogether."

He pointed out that the blue book was down to 28 Roosevelts, 21 Rockefeller (only 20 now with Winthrop gone), six Astors and five Vanderbilts.

It was explained to him that when a listee was caught standing on his head at the Metropolitan Opera, riding a horse into a hotel, or marrying somebody from the wrong side of the railroad tracks, he was dropped from the next edition of the blue book.

"No wonder they are weeding out the old American families and Smiths," said our tribe leader. "If a fellow named Brown is picked up for copfrighting, they probably don't even bother to check their index. But a Vanderbilt? If he gets arrested, they ought to volunteer to go bail for him because he lends class to their book. But instead they just start rubbing his name out."

"That may be high society, but it ain't loyalty—and I say to heck with it."

So the Boyle family voted to

Jailed 2nd Time For Theft Of Same Article

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A 33-year-old electronics student who was jailed in February for stealing a tape recorder from a church is back in the toils of the law.

He is charged with stealing the same machine all over again.

It was on Feb. 14 that John E. Whitley was first arrested. The tape recorder, returned to the First Congregational Church of West Hartford, was reported missing again Oct. 28.

Detectives said they found it in Whitley's room. They charged him last night with breaking, entering and theft—the same counts on which he was sentenced earlier in the year to six months in jail and placed on probation.

British Say Trooper Offered Aid To Enemy

BOVINGTON, England (AP)—An 18-year-old Royal Armored Corps trooper will appear before a court martial Dec. 2 on a charge of offering information which might be useful to an enemy, the War Office announced today.

The soldier, T. E. Dewick, a clerk to the technical adjutant of a driving and maintenance school, allegedly offered the information to an unauthorized organization. Dewick was said to be a member of the organization, which was not named in the War Office announcement.

Claim Facing Rear Gives Safest Plane Ride

SALISBURY, England (AP)—The British Air Ministry pointed today to an airplane crash here as another proof of the added safety attached to sitting backwards in a plane.

Four crewmen—necessarily facing forward—were injured when a Royal Air Force transport collided with a jet fighter and crashed. The nine passengers, however, walked out dazed but unhurt. They were seated facing the rear of the plane.

boycoit the blue book. And it will do no good for the editors to come creeping and crawling to us and saying, "please, can't we just put one Boyle in our next edition?"

We are going to put out our own social register. It will have 100 pages—99 pages of Boyles and one page for all the Goulds, Vanderbilts, Roosevelts, and Rockefeller's the New York Social Register throws away. The book will be emblazoned with the old Boyle family motto:

"If you can't join 'em—whip 'em at their own game."

There will be an extra fee for any Brown, Jones, Johnson, or Williams who wants to climb on our new society bandwagon.

ORDINANCE NO. 521124-79 TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE CITY OF SALEM IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF CERTAIN STREETS HEREIN DESIGNATED BY PAVING AND OTHERWISE IMPROVING THE SAME, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Salem has heretofore by proper legislation declared the necessity of improving certain streets hereinafter named by paving and otherwise improving the same and in order to finance such construction has heretofore authorized and issued notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds and the levy and collection of special assessments, which notes are overdue; and

WHEREAS, the City Auditor, as fiscal officer, has certified to the maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued and as to the estimated life of the improvements so constructed; and

WHEREAS, the net unpaid assessments heretofore levied for said improvements were certified to the Auditor of Columbiana County for collection over a period of ten years, beginning with the collection year 1950 and three annual installments thereof having been collected to and including the present year 1952, there now remain outstanding and uncollected assessments aggregating in excess of $18,300 which will be collected and settled for in the years 1953 to 1959, inclusive;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio: Section 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue bonds of said City in the principal sum of $18,300, in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the cost of improving Rose Avenue, E. State Street, Roosevelt Avenue, N. State Street, and Spring and Arch Streets, Maple Street, Ninth Street, Liberty Street, Vine Street and Wilson Street, as provided and between the terms specified in the resolutions to improve the same, being respectively Resolutions Nos. 46003-36, 47015-22, 48042-10 and 48042-15. It is hereby recited and declared that there has been no default in the payment of said notes previously issued in anticipation thereof an amount sufficient to pay the interest thereon until said assessments are available.

Section 2. Said bonds in the principal sum of $18,300 shall be issued in the denomination of $1000 each, except that one bond shall be in the denomination of $1300, shall be numbered from 1 to 18, both inclusive, and shall be dated December 1, 1952. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of three per centum (3 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of May and November of each year until the principal sum is paid in full. The said bonds shall be subject to redemption at the option of the City at any time after the date of issue at a premium of five per cent over the principal sum. Said maturities are hereby determined to be in substantially equal annual installments.

Section 3. That said bonds shall express upon their face the purpose for which they are issued; and that they are issued in pursuance of this ordinance and shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor, and sealed with the corporate seal of said City. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Auditor. Interest and principal of said bonds shall be payable at the office of the City's fiscal officer, Treasurer, at the National Bank of Salem, Salem, Ohio.

Section 4. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds, promptly when and as the same fall due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of Salem, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said bonds and when the same fall due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution. PROVIDED, however, that in each year when the assessments anticipated by the City for the year in which said bonds are to run are not sufficient to provide for such purpose, the amount of the assessments so appropriated shall be reduced by the amount of the assessments so appropriated.

Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate collected by the same officers, in the that the taxes for general purposes for each year and at the same time each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Section 5. That all installments of said assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest on said bonds shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 6. It is hereby determined that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done precedent to and in and for the issuing of said bonds, and all binding obligations of the City have been performed in regular and due form as required by law; that the full faith, credit and revenue of said City shall be and are hereby irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of the principal and interest thereof at maturity; and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or constitutional, will be exceeded in issuing said bonds.

Section 7. That said bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and if said officer refuses to take any or all of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for sale by the City in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds, except the premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be used for the purpose of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and the premium and accrued interest received from such sale shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied in the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds in the manner provided by law.

Section 8. That the Auditor is hereby authorized and directed to certify a copy of this ordinance to the Auditor of Columbiana County, Ohio, according to law.

Section 9. ORDINANCE NO. 521124-80

TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE CITY OF SALEM IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF CERTAIN STREETS HEREIN DESIGNATED BY PAVING AND OTHERWISE IMPROVING THE SAME, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Salem has heretofore by proper legislation declared the necessity of improving certain streets hereinafter named by paving the same and in order to finance such construction has heretofore authorized and issued notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds and the levy and collection of special assessments, which notes are overdue; and

WHEREAS, the City Auditor, as fiscal officer, has certified to the maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued and as to the estimated life of the improvements so constructed; and

WHEREAS, the net unpaid assessments heretofore levied for said improvements have been certified to the Auditor of Columbiana County for collection and settlement in the years 1953 to 1962, inclusive, the assessments so certified being in the aggregate in excess of $38,600.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio: Section 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue bonds of said City in the principal sum of $38,600, in anticipation of the collection of special assessments heretofore levied to pay the cost of improving Walnut Street, Fair Street, S. Lundy Street, Arch Street and Superior Street, as provided and between the terms specified in the resolutions to improve the same, being respectively Resolutions Nos. 48042-15, 48042-16, 48042-17, 48042-18 and 48042-19. It is hereby recited and declared that there has been no default in the payment of said notes previously issued in anticipation thereof an amount sufficient to pay the interest thereon until said assessments are available.

Section 2. Said bonds in the principal sum of $38,600 shall be issued in the denomination of $1000 each, except that one bond shall be in the denomination of $600, shall be numbered from 1 to 38, both inclusive, and shall be dated December 1, 1952. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of three per centum (3 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of May and November of each year until the principal sum is paid in full. The said bonds shall be subject to redemption at the option of the City at any time after the date of issue at a premium of five per cent over the principal sum. Said maturities are hereby determined to be in substantially equal annual installments.

Section 3. That said bonds shall express upon their face the purpose for which they are issued; and that they are issued in pursuance of this ordinance and shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor, and sealed with the corporate seal of said City. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Auditor. Interest and principal of said bonds shall be payable at the office of the City's fiscal officer, Treasurer, at the National Bank of Salem, Salem, Ohio.

Section 4. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds, promptly when and as the same fall due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of Salem, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said bonds and when the same fall due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution. PROVIDED, however, that in each year when the assessments anticipated by the City for the year in which said bonds are to run are not sufficient to provide for such purpose, the amount of the assessments so appropriated shall be reduced by the amount of the assessments so appropriated.

Section 5. That all installments of said assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest on said bonds shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 6. It is hereby determined that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done precedent to and in and for the issuing of said bonds, and all binding obligations of the City have been performed in regular and due form as required by law; that the full faith, credit and revenue of said City shall be and are hereby irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of the principal and interest thereof at maturity; and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or constitutional, will be exceeded in issuing said bonds.

Section 7. That said bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and if said officer refuses to take any or all of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for sale by the City in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds, except the premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be used for the purpose of the Bond Retirement Fund in his official capacity, and the premium and accrued interest received from such sale shall be transferred to the

Farm Parity To Vote On

Ohio Federation Also To Elect President

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—After three days of discussion and debate, delegates to the 34th annual Ohio Farm Bureau Federation Conference will vote today on farm parity resolutions.

The president of the federation will be elected after the resolutions session. High-ranking officials said President Everett T. Rittenour of Piketon probably would be re-elected.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley of North Carolina, Democratic chairman of the House Agricultural Committee, told the farmers Tuesday night he was in "sharp disagreement" with the farm policy outlined before the same group by Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) Monday night.

Cooley said he was for a rigid scale of 90 per cent on basic agricultural commodities.

Parity attempts to give the farmer the same purchasing power regardless of the current purchasing power of the dollar. Under the price support program, the government agrees to purchase basic crops if the market price falls below prices which would bring parity to the farmer.

"The 90 per cent of parity clause is in the present law, and I shall do everything I can to defend, effect and perpetuate the current program," Cooley said.

He said it was the proper function of government to give the farmer an absolute guarantee to buy his crops.

"If that is wrong, then the minimum wage law is wrong," the congressman said.

Taft advocated a flexible farm price support program. "The exact support price ought to be determined by trial and error, perhaps by a farm board given discretion within certain limits," the Ohio senator said.

Charles Kettering, noted Dayton scientist, told the farmers about research in "what takes place when the sun strikes a plant."

"We capture only one half of 1 per cent of the total energy from the sun," he said. "If we double that figure, we will double the world's food supply."

The federation honored 13 rural Ohio ministers and a weekday teacher of religion, who received nominations for rural minister of the year awards presented by the federation, the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies and the Ohio Council of Churches in collaboration with the Ohio Farmer.

Honored were: Rev. M. R. Walter, Sunbury; Rev. Robert L. Sherry, New Carlisle; Rev. Arthur W. Nicholson, Loudonville; Rev. Hubert K. Clevenger Jr., Greenville; Rev. George Crenshaw, North Baltimore; Rev. Harold Hess, Pomeroy; Rev. Charles C. Mesmer, New Madison; Rev. Lewis D. Savage, Leesburg; Rev. Thomas W. Taylor, Clarksburg; Rev. C. A. Nucholz, Copely; Rev. G. W. Bingham, Condit; Rev. Robert Becker, Mount Vernon; Rev. Russell Lester, Seaman, and Guelah Hunt, Greenville.

Newsman Raps Proposed Ban Of Photographers From Courts

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—A proposal of the Ohio State Bar Association restricting the taking of news photographs in court cases was described today as a serious threat to freedom of information.

A canon of ethics proposed by the bar association for approval by the Ohio Supreme Court would not only bar taking of pictures in courtrooms when courts are in session, but also when they are in recess. George A. Smallsreed, Sr., chairman of the committee on Freedom of Information of the Ohio Newspaper Association said adoption of this proposal "could lead to other extremes," and added:

able in the Republican party, McCormick said.

"This presages a split between Eisenhower and a large majority of Republicans," McCormick said. "How we shall go from here nobody can know."

Eisenhower's own nomination as the GOP candidate, the publisher continued, was the result of cleavages within the party. He said, "A queer assortment of millionaire socialists in the East brought about the nomination of Eisenhower by sharp practice which caused great defection."

McCormick in the New Haven speech also mentioned for the first time since the election his thoughts on a third party. The publisher, a life-long Republican, advocated such a third party before the election; but his Chicago Tribune in the later stages of the campaign endorsed Eisenhower "with reluctance."

"Advocates of a third party this year were embarrassed for lack of a candidate," McCormick said. "If a third party is to be formed it will have to be formed before the (next) conventions, and a candidate will have to be found who can accept defeat in 1956 . . . with the idea of having a victorious party in 1960 . . ."

The Chicago Tribune supported Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the GOP nomination.

In a statement accompanying his announcements about Mrs. Hobby and Mrs. Priest, Eisenhower called them "outstanding women." He said, "I am honored to have them participate in the affairs of the government of the United States."

The Federal Security Agency directs government social and welfare work. Eisenhower described it as a "virtually important position." In view of its importance, he said, Mrs. Hobby will be asked to attend cabinet meetings although the post does not now have cabinet rank.

Both Mrs. Hobby and Mrs. Priest are 47 years old. Mrs. Hobby has two children. Mrs. Priest three. Mrs. Hobby served some six years in the Texas House of Representatives as parliamentarian. She filled various editorial and executive offices on the Houston Post and became its editor and publisher last month.

"There is no need of a canon to further impede the already restricted free flow of public information in the courts."

Smallsreed editor of the Columbus Dispatch issued the following statement as committee chairman: "Functions and procedures of the courts are public business conducted for and in behalf of the public interest and welfare. Historically, courtrooms have been open to the public, which has a right to know what is transpiring in its courts. By the same token, courts traditionally have enforced proper decorum on the part of the visiting public during trials and hearings, a practice which the public itself respects and demands."

"Throughout the history of jurisprudence in America the press has been admitted to courtrooms for the purpose of bringing information about proceedings to the public. In this modern day and age, public information consists not only of the written word, but also of pictures."

"In the interest of courtroom dignity and decorum, the press has acquiesced these many years to general courtroom practice which prohibited the taking of photographs while the court is in session."

"Now an effort is being made to extend the scope of this courtroom ban on photography to the point where freedom of information is seriously threatened."

"In its recommendations to the Ohio Supreme Court for adoption as court ethics in this state, the Ohio State Bar Association proposes that taking of pictures be barred in courtrooms not only while courts are in session, but also in courtrooms when the courts are in recess."

"Once adopted, this canon could lead to other extremes, such as prohibiting pictures in corridors outside courtrooms or of principals and evidence in any place as long as the trial is in progress. This proposed canon is subject to wide interpretation, depending upon the temperament of the court and the physical arrangement of various courtrooms."

"Under the proposed restrictions on pictures in courtrooms during recesses, it could mean that photography would be prohibited not only during mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks in sessions, but also during noon hours lunch periods and recesses declared from one day to another and even over week - ends."

"At no time during any recess is decorum or dignity in the courtroom jeopardized or even involved since the court is not sitting and procedure is not in motion."

"Banning the taking of pictures during recesses may mean that this form of information to the public has lost what little freedom it has enjoyed in the courtroom."

"Judges always have had complete control of practice and discipline in their courtrooms, conducting their procedure successfully to meet situations as they arise. There is no need of a canon to further impede the already restricted free flow of public information in the courts."

Babysitter Chokes 4-Month-Old Boy

SEATTLE (AP)—A high school girl who said she lost her temper when a baby she was tending wouldn't stop crying told officers she choked a 4-month-old boy to death with a cloth last night.

The girl, Ellen Noreen Fern, 15, was caring for Garry Payne, son of her next door neighbor who had gone to the grocery store. Garry started crying soon after the Paynes left the house, she said in a statement to Detectives C. F. Kirschner and R. W. Waitt.

The detectives said she told them: "I took him into the bedroom and laid him on the bed. He was still crying; he wouldn't be quiet. I looked him over and everything but he wouldn't be quiet."

"I then lost my temper and grabbed a striped cloth, similar to the pajamas on the bed. I had such a headache, and to keep him quiet I pushed with my fingers and shoved the rag down his throat."

"He shut up all of a sudden and just gurgled. He was so still and didn't say anything or cry. It had seemed like ages that the rag was in his throat before he quit crying. When he quit crying I pulled the rag out."

Then she summoned her mother. The girl is held by police as "delinquent."

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Examine For Reinfected Pinworms

A mother who signs herself "Dis-tracted" says that for the fourth time in two years she is treating her children for pinworms. In her letter she asks three questions concerning them.

Under such circumstances, however, all the members of the family should be examined for pinworms including the husband, even though he has no symptoms.

The chances of reinfection are so great that in addition to hygienic measures, everyone with whom the children are likely to come in contact and thus become reinfected should be examined and given treatment if they are found to have these parasites.

In answer to the second question, it can be said that the diet is not responsible for reinfection with pinworms unless somehow or other pinworms are contaminating the food, and this could only occur if someone handling the food already had the worms.

This mother, like many others, has evidently been extremely careful in handling and serving food and in instructing her children in hygienic measures. The fact that she has boiled the washing so carefully and still the children have become reinfected, suggests the cause of reinfection lies elsewhere.

The parasites are rather delicate and die fairly easily outside the human body, so that it would probably be quite safe merely to wash the clothing carefully in hot water, then make sure that it is thoroughly dry.

Unfortunately, such experiences as that described are by no means unusual and about the only suggestion one can make is that still further efforts be made to identify all possible carriers of pinworms so that they, too, can be treated and will not serve as a source of future trouble.

Rowdyism In City Schools Is Reported

CLEVELAND (AP)—Rowdyism among Cleveland school children worried police and school board members today.

In the past week, a boy has been sentenced to six months in the workhouse for punching a high school principal.

Today, 15 Nathan Hale Junior High School boys were to be charged with delinquency on claims they beat up two fellow pupils.

Police promised to lengthen the time of patrols of school areas. School boards in two other Ohio communities — Perrysville and Mantua — had disciplinary problems, too.

Some parents in Perrysville, which is near Ashland, asked school superintendent Merle Hunter, 54, be fired for padding 13-year-old Charles Gretzing for "whispering" in study hall. Hunter conceded before the board that the "blows might have been harder than was necessary."

In Mantua, near Ravenna, board president James Davis said he did not know whether the case of teacher George Converse, 53, will come up at the next meeting. Robert Remers, 17, a senior at Mantua - Shalersville High School said Converse knocked him out last Tuesday in the school building after slapping him in the face in an argument over taking a ball from some younger boys.
